

“Follow the Lamb”

Words & Music by The Wild Promise

“Follow the Lamb” is a gritty gospel-inspired rock confessional—a song for the weary, the worn-out, and the shackled. It’s a prison song, a freedom song, and a redemption story all rolled into one.

Written from the perspective of a tormented soul who’s hit rock bottom—broke, bound, and buried under the weight of regret—the lyrics pull no punches. There’s no silver spoon here, no clean church clothes. Just a man stuck in his own hell, weighed down by sin, shame, and spiritual poverty.

But that’s where grace shows up.

The turning point isn’t when he gets stronger—it’s when Jesus steps in. “God came down and He grabbed me by the hand.” That’s the moment everything changes. No sermon, no ceremony—just a Savior breaking chains and blowing open the prison doors.

The repeated call to “Follow the Lamb” echoes through the darkness like a lifeline. It’s not just a call to faith—it’s a call to freedom, to leave behind the lies, the shame, the cell... and walk in peace.

This song is for anyone who’s ever felt unworthy, unwanted, or too far gone. The Lamb is still calling. Follow Him.

Biblical Inspiration:

“Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.” — John 1:29

“So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.” — John 8:36

“He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free.” — Luke 4:18

“Come, follow me,” Jesus said, “and I will send you out to fish for people.” — Matthew 4:19

Lyrics

Verse 1:

I ain't got much money
I ain't got much time
I ain't got much freedom
No peace of mind
I'm in this lonely prison cell
With no hope of survival

Verse 2:

No hand-me-down riches
No stories of fame
I'm so ashamed I even threw away
my name
Because it hurt me
And I was in pain

Chorus 1:

Blood dripped from my last dollar
As I paid the ferryman
But You came down and You grabbed me by the hand
And said 'Follow the Lamb'
Follow the Lamb

Verse 3:

My legs are shackled
I'm weighed down by chains
I couldn't pay my bail
Now I'm a slave
To those demons in my head
Who locked me in a cage

Chorus 2:

Like thunder in the night
You blew those doors right off my cell
You said 'Go in peace and don't come back to hell
Just follow the Lamb'
