

"BROKEN HEART"

Words & Music by The Wild Promise

"Broken Heart" is a deeply personal confession—raw, tender, and unfiltered. It tells the story of a life marked by early loss, rebellion, and the slow unraveling that comes when we try to outrun pain on our own terms. It's the sound of someone who's finally ready to stop running and start healing.

The song begins with childhood trauma, my childhood trauma —"I lost my soul at 10 years old"—a moment many can relate to, when innocence gives way to heartbreak and we begin carrying wounds too heavy for a kid to bear. From there, the lyrics trace the long road through addiction, unbelief, and self-destruction. But even in the wandering, there's a whisper of mercy that won't let go.

At its core, "Broken Heart" is a cry for redemption—an admission that human strength fails, but divine mercy never does. The chorus repeats like a prayer: "Only You can heal my broken heart." It's not polished. It's not pretty. But it's real.

For anyone who's ever tried to fix themselves only to fall apart again, this song is a reminder that God doesn't wait for us to be whole before He loves us—He meets us right in the pieces of our broken hearts.

Biblical Inspiration:

"The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit." — Psalm 34:18

"He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds." — Psalm 147:3

"My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." — 2 Corinthians 12:9

"BROKEN HEART"

Verse 1:

I lost my soul at 10 years old
When I let go I didn't know where to find you
Then you appeared and pulled me near
And in my ear said put your past behind you

Verse 2:

But I refused, took to my my muse
While I abused the love that you provided
And all the while my inner child
Was in denial of the promises you keep

Chorus 1:

On my own I'll only get so far
And fall to pieces from all my scars
In your mercy I find my start
Only you can heal my broken heart

Verse 3:

Then I grew up and had enough
Of shame and lust and the war that I was losing
With every step I'd make my bet
it's life or death
And always end up using

Verse 4:

Lord help me please, I cannot see
In front of me, I've got no path to follow
And all I do to try and prove my love for You it leaves me feeling hollow

On my own I'll only get so far
And fall to pieces from all my scars

And fall to pieces from all my scars
In your mercy I find my start
Jesus you can heal this broken heart

Chorus 2:

On my own I'll only get so far
And fall to pieces from all my scars
In your mercy I find my start
